

We support charities...with 0% selling commission...

We offer charities the chance to sell donated items through the competitive atmosphere of our auctions FREE OF CHARGE... without paying our sellers commission...

Charities receive the true market value of donated jewellery, silver & gold, watches, coins, other small valuables & collectors items from selling through our live online auctions to buyers locally, nationally & worldwide

We offer free appraisal, valuation & sale by auction by an established, professional, specialist valuer & auctioneer with over 30 years experience & knowledge with over 12 years of selling donated items by auction in partnership with local & national charities...

Below are a just three of the successful fund-raisers we have sold in the past in partnership with charities...

Sold for £950...
a gold & diamond ring sold on behalf of a mental health charity after careful appraisal of quality & value ...

Sold for £840...
a Scandinavian designer silver vase, identified & sold for a local emergency charity after worldwide bids...

Sold for £780...
a gold watch chain sold on behalf of a local Cornwall charity for above its 'scrap' value...

We have raised hundreds of pounds for the crew fund of our local lifeboat... Selling, free of charge by auction, items donated to the RNLI Penlee Lifeboat & unsold or unwanted auction entries kindly donated by some of our clients...

We work in partnership with Mount's Bay Rotary selling donated items for their charitable projects... Barbara was awarded a Honorary Paul Harris Rotary Fellowship for selling without charge a valuable estate willed to the charity ...

BarbaraKirkPenzanceSpecialistAuction

*PLEASE NOTE: We inspect, appraise & value all items with a representative of the charity present & offer a genuine estimate of value. As with all our clients, we supply an auction entry receipt listing all entries. We do not purchase items & re-sell for profit.